

Common sense is not always common.

Let's think about our self-esteem.
How have parents raised us?

What makes a child happy, and beyond that answer,
isn't it the happiness of the parents?

HAPPINESS OF CHILDREN

Get a good college degree

Get a good job

Marry a good man & get rich

Have cute children

Take care of parents

HAPPINESS OF PARENTS

Everyone is suffering in each of these directions for their parents.

- I couldn't go to a state university.
- I got a job that was not my parents' ideal.
- I want to quit my job, but what will my parents think if I quit after 3 months?

- I can't get married.
- I can't have children.
- I want to get a divorce, but I don't have the courage.
- My husband is having an affair.

Daddy never loved me, Mommy never loved me, wounds.

Children will be traumatized by the experience of grieving their parents and will torment themselves for the rest of their lives.

Of course your life will go like this.

Many women are forced to leave the workforce between the ages of 25 and 34 due to life events such as marriage, childbirth, and childcare.

The top five topics on women's web 'Spicomi' are "How to take time off work".

Japanese working women are mentally ill.

I want to take a break but I can't.
I feel bad that my coworkers have to work more because of me.
I am afraid of being talked about behind my back.
If I take a day off because of my child, my boss will get mad.

But if I keep working like this, I won't be able to take care of myself.
I will be blamed on my family.

Even if I take time off, I am always worried about my workplace and cannot relax.

I want to take time off so as not to cause discomfort to others.
I want to take time off for a justifiable reason.

Let's search.

What do you really want to do?
